

The Young Stand Thinning and Diversity Study

After years of post-treatment data collection and analysis, what have we learned?

June 11, 2009

Sponsored by Central Cascades Adaptive Management Partnership, which includes the Willamette National Forest, H.J. Andrews Experimental Forest, Eugene BLM, PNW Research Station, and Oregon State University

Agenda

	Topic	Speaker
0900 - 0930	Welcome, overview of day, and Overview of Young Stand Thinning and Diversity Study	Cheryl Friesen, Science Liaison, Willamette National Forest
0930 - 1015	Vegetation Response to thinning treatments YSS and DMS	Klaus Puettmann and Adrien Ares, Oregon State University
1015 - 1030	Break
1030 - 1115	Bird Response to thinning treatments and wildlife tree creation in YSS	Joan Hagar, USGS, Corvallis
1115 - 1200	Small Mammal and down wood Response to thinning treatments in YSS	Brenda McComb and Tom Manning, Oregon State University
1200 - 1225	Lunch - bring your own
1225 - 1235	Load for field trip

Agenda Continued

1235 - 1305	Travel
1305 - 1405	Field Stop #1: Control & Light thin with gaps	Tom Manning, Brenda McComb, Joan Hagar, Klaus Puettmann will discuss resource responses
1405 - 1425	Travel
1425 - 1525	Field Stop #2: Heavy thin	Tom Manning, Brenda McComb, Joan Hagar, Klaus Puettmann will discuss resource responses
1525 - 1545	Travel
1545 - 1615	Discussion/further questions at HJA	All
1615	Adjourn	